

15 YEARS OF SPARKLING SUCCESS FOR BUSY BEES

BUSY BEES has come a long way in the last 15 years, and credits the support of local businesses, local clients and staff members for their continued success and growth.

Busy Bees held an open day on 1st October, celebrating their 15th anniversary and the opening of their new premises. They thank all their clients, suppliers and staff members who attended.

Amy Welch and Caron Henwood have been friends ever since they met at Oakfield School, at the age of 9. When they started Busy Bees Cleaning and Maintenance, they ran the business from Amy's dining room.

These days, the business has over 40 staff, each specialising in their own area of expertise, operating from their base in Commerce Park.

The duo say that Frome has been the perfect place to grow a business. Not only do they have plenty of loyal clients, but they can always rely on local businesses and local suppliers to support them. Perhaps this is why the business is so keen to remind people to 'keep trade local' and support the town's precious independent businesses.

Amy said, "We want to use this opportunity to thank all the local suppliers who have supported us, from being a new business venture, to the business we have grown into today. It's great to work with local people, who you know won't let you or your business down. Our businesses support each other.

"And we also want to thank all our regular and one-off clients who have supported us throughout the years, and for all those who support our suppliers as well - all of whom we can thoroughly recommend.

"Caron and I are both from Frome, so we're really proud to have our unit in the town and be able to provide a friendly and reliable service for our area.

"We have diversified our business in 15 years, from starting with domestic cleaning only, into commercial cleaning, upholstery and carpet cleaning, garden maintenance, specialised cleaning (including trauma cleaning), grime cleaning, house clearance and holiday lettings. One call to us can achieve so much!"

- Domestic cleaning: Busy Bees will carry out a free on site visit to your home to discuss your requirements. They will then organise a convenient day and time for the same regular cleaner to visit. Local cleaners are employed directly by Busy Bees, not via agencies, and are fully vetted.

- Commercial cleaning: With many different types of commercial businesses, holiday lets, rental properties and builder cleans in the area as regular clients, Busy Bees understands every premises is different. They can adapt to suit all environments.

- Garden maintenance: Don't abandon your garden just because the days are growing colder. A bit of TLC now will let you enjoy the views from inside all through the winter, and you'll be rewarded in the summer as well!

- Specialist cleaning: Having received training from the National Academy of Crime Scene Cleaners, they are one of a few fully qualified companies to deal with anything from used syringes to blood and biohazards - an area only specialist cleaners can deal with. Busy Bees can also respond to fire and flood damage.

- Carpet and upholstery cleaning: Cleaners use up-to-date specialised machinery and chemicals, and attend regular training courses.

- Pest Control: Tenants and landlords: Busy Bees make sure that when pets leave your property, the pests do too.

- Christmas parties: With the festive season approaching, Busy Bees are gearing up to get everything spick and span for the parties and celebrations, whether you need a deep clean or simply want a quick clean to freshen the place up. And better still, they're even on hand to clean up afterwards! Early booking is advised for this busy time of year.
